

SENATOR DAVID G. ARGALL PRESENTS:

How To Be A Smart Electric Consumer

Thursday, March 18, 2010

6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Schuylkill Training and Technology Center – North Campus
101 Technology Drive
Frackville, PA 17931

PENNSYLVANIA'S ELECTRIC PRICE CAPS ARE LIFTED.

Do you know what that means for you? Has your monthly electric bill increased? Have you selected a new electric generator? Do you know how to save money on your electric bill? Where do you go to compare rates? Need answers to these questions, then attend my informative seminar How To Be A Smart Electric Consumer.

Representatives from the Public Utility Commission and the Office of Consumer Advocate will be on hand to address these questions and explain what this all means to you as a consumer. Also invited are representatives of the supplying companies for our area who will be available to answer questions about their plans.

For directions, call toll free 1-877-327-4255 or go to senatorargall.com.